

Alstom is dedicated to a low-carbon future through innovative and sustainable transport solutions. They offer high-speed trains, metros, monorails, trams, turnkey systems, services, infrastructure, signaling, and digital mobility. With a presence in 64 countries and over 84,700 employees from 184 nationalities, Alstom focuses on design, innovation, and project management where mobility solutions are most needed. Listed in France, Alstom generated €17.6 billion in revenue for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2024. For more information, visit www.alstom.com